

Today's reading from Mark is the climax to which his presentation of the life of Jesus to this point has been leading. The mission of Jesus has been rejected and misunderstood. It is essential to God's designs that the disciples of Jesus do not misunderstand the mission that has brought the Son forth from the Father to bring healing to a lost world.

The 'who' question is central to our human existence: 'Who are you, my companion on the journey of life?' 'Who am I?' These questions, if we face their implications, confront us with the depths and mystery of our common humanity. Jesus called himself, 'the Son of Man', a title that affirmed his sharing in our human condition. When the 'who' question is addressed to him we find not only the mysterious depths of our common humanity, but also the mystery of the generous designs of God, conceived with the Son and the Holy Spirit, in the depths of the divine eternity. Discipleship is learning, in the course of our lives, the answer to the 'who' question we address to the Saviour - who has made himself our ever-present companion. Like Peter, we shall find that we are forced to re-evaluate our most basic assumptions in the light of the ways of God we learn from Jesus.

Jesus is 'the Christ', the messiah in whom Israel's hopes are centred. He begins to teach his disciples 'quite openly' what lay ahead of them in Jerusalem. He is not the political saviour so ardently hoped for in popular expectations: the 'Son of Man' will be 'rejected' - 'put to death' even. Peter's brave act of faith must be further clarified. Mark's gospel does not spare Peter - perhaps because this community has already heard of Peter's humiliations from Peter himself. Jesus addresses Peter as 'Satan', obstructing God's plan. That plan, Jesus explains, has been foreshadowed in two themes of Israel's hopes, the 'Suffering Servant' (see Is 52-53 etc - the first reading is one of the descriptions of the 'Servant') and the 'Son of Man' (Dan 7). Both of these themes envisage a mysterious personage who will fulfil the destiny of Israel - the first bringing healing for the world's self-inflicted suffering by sharing in that suffering himself; the other bringing all peoples together under the beneficent reign of God's ways.

Jesus emphatically spells out the demands of discipleship: sharing in his responsibility for the human family, even if it means sharing his 'cross'; living 'for the sake of the gospel', the Good News of the generous future God has in store for struggling humanity.

Once again, the reading from James speaks in very practical terms. His discussion of 'faith', that is 'quite dead' if it has no 'good works' to show, is familiar. It is possible that James is responding to a self-serving misinterpretation of Paul's teaching that 'we are justified by faith'. True discipleship, as Jesus reminds Peter, proves itself in a generosity that has been learned in the presence of the Crucified Saviour.

Who do you say that I am?

Readings ~ Isaiah 50:5-9 ~ James 2:14-18 ~ Mark 8:27-35

"Who do people say that I am?" Who do you think Jesus is?
The depth of our faith is rooted in our answer.
Is God calling you to be a priest, religious, or deacon?

Rosary Group — mornings suspended; Fridays, 2pm, above Running Room

Why not take this opportunity to pray the Holy Rosary every evening, at home with your family!

"The Rosary is the most excellent form of prayer and the most efficacious means of attaining eternal life. It is the remedy for all our evils, the root of all our blessings. There is no more excellent way of praying."

— Pope Leo XIII

Social Justice at Our Lady of Sorrows — Call for Volunteers

Following the success of last month's talk by Dr. Rohan Curnow, there's an effort afoot to develop a social justice movement at OLS in accordance with the Catechism of the Catholic Church (paragraph 1932) which talks about "making oneself a neighbour to others and actively serving them". Email socialjustice@sorrows.ca and volunteer to help shape this effort!

Reconciliation, Communion, Confirmation — Registration Sundays

Parish staff will be available in the parish office to process registrations and collect fees after all Sunday Masses on the following dates:

- First Reconciliation and First Communion — Sunday, September 27
- Confirmation — Sunday, October 4

"Our insistence that each human being is an image of God should not make us overlook the fact that each creature has its own purpose. None is superfluous." — Pope Francis from Laudato si'

COMMUNITY

Witness Interview: Stephen Colbert — Sunday, September 13, 8pm

Stephen Colbert needs little introduction! Born on May 13, 1964, in Washington, D.C., he joined Chicago's Second City comedy troupe. Together with comedians Amy Sedaris and Paul Dinello, they created and starred in both Exit 57 and Strangers with Candy. In 1997, Colbert began appearing in episodes of The Daily Show. In 2005, he was given his own spin-off show, The Colbert Report. He published I Am America (And So Can You!) in 2007. In 2014, it was announced that Colbert would replace David Letterman as host of CBS' Late Show. Stephen Colbert is not only a great comedian but a devout, proud Catholic who does not hide his religious beliefs and deep love of the Church. Only on Salt + Light Television.

In this rare, personal interview with Fr. Thomas Rosica, CSB, Stephen Colbert tells all.
